

MRS. IRVIN TAUTE
... Weds Saturday

Gloria J. Mapel Becomes Mrs. Taute in Church Rite

Assembly of God Church was the scene last Saturday evening June 15 at 7 p.m. for the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Gloria Jean Mapel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Mapel, 1194 W. 226th St. and Irvin Taute, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Taute, 1824 Martina Ave.

Don Galloway, at the organ, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Freeda Rinehart, soloist.

Mr. Mapel escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a waltz length gown of white satin and lace fashioned with a standup lace collar, molded bodice and a bouffant skirt. A tiara held her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids atop a small white Bible.

Miss Ruth Alice Mapel was the maid of honor wearing pale blue chiffon over taffeta and carrying a cascade of white carnations.

Misses Joan Martin and Rosalie Jones were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were of shrimp chiffon over taffeta and their bouquets were of white carnations tied with shrimp satin streamers.

Ed Thompson served as best man and ushers were Al Mendoza and Wolf Fengler. The Rev. Fred Martin officiated at the marriage.

A reception followed the wedding at which Miss Patt Long registered the guests.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School. Her husband was graduated from Torrance High school and attended Harbor Junior college.

The couple are now at home in San Diego.

Failla-Breiner Marriage Solemnized at Nativity

The main sanctuary of the Nativity Catholic Church was banked with baskets of white gladioli, stock and carnations with standards holding tall white candles for the wedding of Miss Lucia Marie Failla and Danny M. Breiner which took place Saturday afternoon, June 15, at 1 o'clock.

As the 185 wedding guests assembled, Mrs. Minnie McConologue played a prelude of nuptial music and accompanied Miss Diane Power who sang "Ave Maria".

At the first chords of the traditional wedding march, Miss Carol Ann Getz as maid of honor entered the church. She wore a full length pink taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Mr. Failla walked to the altar with his daughter. She wore a Merl Lee original of white nylon lace and tulle fashioned with a Queen Anne collar, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant skirt. The full illusion veil was secured by a pearl tiara and to complete the bridal picture she carried a sheath bouquet of white orchids, small rosebuds and orange blossoms.

She and her father were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Ray Breiner. Ushering were Louie Failla and Frank Getz. The Rev. Fred Callahan officiated at the marriage.

The YWCA was the setting for the reception which followed. The newlyweds then left for Palm Springs for a week's honeymoon. Upon their return they will be at home at 1967 Plaza Del Amo. The bride attended Nativity school and Banning High school. Her bridegroom is a Banning High graduate.
